Southlands Summer Concerts 2011

Hazel Miller - Friday, June 3

When Hazel Miller was in third grade she saw Ella Fitzgerald, Sarah Vaughn and Nancy Wilson performing on the Ed Sullivan Show and told her mother, "that's what I want to do." Today Hazel Miller is one of the most in-demand musicians in Colorado, has toured successfully nationally, and is poised to enter the San Francisco music scene. Her will to succeed and to thrill audiences with her versatile voice—equally at home with hard-edged blues or sultry jazz numbers—is as hard-driving as her band's beat on Aretha Franklin's signature "Respect". Today Miller believes that nothing is closed to her if she continues to hustle. "I'll continue to show up in places they don't expect to see me. In my 50's and I am still rocking."
